Brief Report	International Women's Day was celebrated on March 8, 2021. Hon. Mrs. J.S. Gayakwad and their staff were present on this occasion. All resource persons delivered a lecture as like Women's safety involves strategies, practices and policies which aim to reduce gender-based violence (or violence against women), including women's fear of crime. Women's safety involves safe spaces. Space is not neutral. Space which causes fear restricts movement and thus the community's use of the space. Women freedom Issues commonly associated with notions of women's rights include the right to bodily integrity and autonomy, to be free from sexual violence, to vote, to hold public office, to enter into legal contracts, to have equal rights in family law, to work, to fair wages or equal pay, to have reproductive rights. They advised economic and social empowerment of women. Prof. Pramila Mane (Director of the Institute), Principal Dr. S.V. Pdmakar, Prof.Sunita Amrutsagar, (Head of the Women Dep. Cell) and all the staff were present on this occasion.

Brief Report	International Women's Day was celebrated on March 8, 2020. Mrs. Swati Krushnat was present on this occasion. She delivered a lecture on "Gender Equality". She discussed concept of gender equality. Gender equality is when people of all genders have equal rights, responsibilities and opportunities. Everyone is affected by gender inequality - women, men, trans and gender diverse people, children and families. Gender equality requires equal enjoyment by women and men of socially-valued goods, opportunities, resources and rewards. Where gender inequality exists, it is generally women who are excluded or disadvantaged in relation to decision-making and access to economic and social resources. Brief Report	International Women's Day was celebrated on March 8, 2018. On this day organized workshop on self Defense for Women's. Prof. Mrs. Chief Guest Prof Mrs. Anita Vhatkar was present on this Occasion. She delivered a lecture on "Self Defense for Women's". Women's self-defense ultimately gives women freedom, as they are able to defend themselves against mental, emotional and physical challenges. Women who are afraid to express themselves are confined by their fears. Instead, confidence builds freedom. Self-defense tactics are a way of protecting oneself from any form of physical harm. Being trained in techniques such as judo, karate, etc. helps give the learner be alert and gives them the necessary skillset to defend themselves from any kind of bullying or other forms of physical harm. Similarly, She also did demonstrated how girls should protect themselves in the present day. Prof. Miss. Pramila Mane (Director of the Institute), Principal. Dr. Padmakar S.V. Prof. S.S. Amrutsagar and all the staff were present on this occasion. Students liked program very much.
